

HILDA SPECTER MORGENSTERN

Merit Scholarship

Are you a Jewish undergraduate woman who wants to study in Israel in the coming academic year?

The family of Hilda Specter Morgenstern created the Merit scholarship to remember the ideals of a strong and vibrant American Jewish woman who valued Judaism, Israel, education, and the administration of public policy for good.

Who is eligible?

The Merit Scholarship is awarded once a year to an American woman (has U.S. citizenship) who meets the following qualifications:

- Will study in Israel during her undergraduate education (this includes seminary and gap year)
- Identifies strongly as Jewish (identifies with any denomination)
- Has a 3.5 GPA or higher
- Demonstrates strong interest in public advocacy, public policy or government affairs

The Morgenstern Merit Scholarship awards $2,500 directly in tuition dollars to the university, seminary or study program of the applicant's choice. You can find more information at www.morgensternscholarship.org. Application due by February 28, 2020.
